GETTING TO NASHVILLE

Driving to Nashville

Half of the US population lives within 650 miles of Nashville. It's one of only six US cities where three interstates converge, which makes Music City an accessible and strategically located destination.

Nashville International Airport

Nashville International Airport (BNA) is located approximately eight miles from downtown. It's the 29th largest commercial service airport in the United States. Flights are available to over 98 nonstop destinations, served by 17 airlines – including major carriers like American, Delta, and Southwest. And 75% of the country can be reached by plane in under two hours. Nonstop international service includes British Airways from London, Icelandair from Reykjavik, and Aer Lingus from Dublin, along with access to numerous international feeder markets.

Car Rentals

All major car rental agencies are represented at BNA and located just a short walk from the terminal.

airLINE Nashville Airport Shuttle Service

Luxury motor coaches provide airport shuttle services from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., with pickup and drop-off at the Music City Center in downtown Nashville and at the Franklin Marriott Cool Springs in nearby Franklin, Tennessee. The shuttle returns to each location every hour. One-way tickets are $15/person; round trip is $25/person.
